

MASTERYMORNINGS

Living Abundantly

January 11th 2018

at
Pakistan State Oil

Sarfaraz A. Rehman

Competition has surpassed our professional life and has now started taking over our personal life as well.

We are constantly running after an unseen reality, competing against each other in all realms. We have forgotten the real essence of living and the true meaning of life.

Where did the days go when it was all about living life to the fullest?

ABOUT SPEAKER

Sarfaraz is both a chartered accountant and business executive having contributed his expertise to multinational companies such as Unilever, SB (GSK), Jardine Matheson/Olayan JV and PepsiCo during his varied career. Sarfaraz helped establish Engro Foods as its CEO.

Sarfaraz is deeply interested in playing his part in giving back to society and has worked on an online interactive education model for mass education, to resolve the issue of literacy in Pakistan over the next decade. In the past he was also associated with Shaukat Khanum Hospital as a Board of Governor and with WWF as a Director involved with the blind dolphins' project. He is also heavily associated with Hisaar Foundation and its work on water/environmental issues in Pakistan.

PHONE: +92-332-3324550

EMAIL: mornings@learningmindsgroup.com

